

Priority Challenges in Pension Administration Volume 1

<http://itunes.apple.com/us/book/priority-challenges-in-pension/id444198356?mt=11>

Chapter 1: Collection of Social Contributions: Current Practice and Critical Issues, by S. G. Ross

Chapter 12: Recent Developments in the Collection of Social Contributions, by S. G. Ross

Chapter 13: The Collection of Pension Contributions: A Comparative Review of Three Central European Countries, by T. Stanovnik

Chapter 14: An Analysis of Provident and Pension Fund Administration in Selected Asian Countries, by M. Asher

Chapter 15: Future Challenges in Pension Administration, by C. Gibbon

Priority Challenges in Pension Administration Volume 2

<http://itunes.apple.com/us/book/priority-challenges-in-pension/id444198500?mt=11>

Chapter 2: The Use of Information and Communication Technologies to Improve Public Service Delivery and Recognition of Citizen Rights in Brazil, by R. O. D. Assumpcao

Chapter 3: Customer-oriented Services and Information: Enhancing Public Pension Awareness in Canada and Why it Matters, by D. La Salle

Chapter 4: Effective and Efficient ICT Strategies to Support Pension Administration in Denmark, by C. Bodal and A. S. Hansen

Chapter 5: Extending Pension Coverage in Germany: The Employment Insurance Approach, by M. Sailer

Chapter 6: Pension Record-keeping Problems in Japan, by N. Takayama

Priority Challenges in Pension Administration Volume 3

<http://itunes.apple.com/us/book/priority-challenges-in-pension/id444199388?mt=11>

Chapter 7: Improving the Administration of Problem Groups in the National Pension System: The Case of Korea, by S. S. Kim

Chapter 8: Focus on Client Orientation: Service Delivery of the Dutch State Pensions, by L. Boss

Chapter 9: Customer-oriented Services and Information: Experiences from Sweden, by P. Larsson, A. Paulsson and A. Sunden

Chapter 10: National Insurance Administration in the UK, by I. MacDonald

Chapter 11: Ensuring Appropriate Information Management and Data Quality at the United States Social Security Administration, by J. Berson